Headmaster

Samuel Robinson II

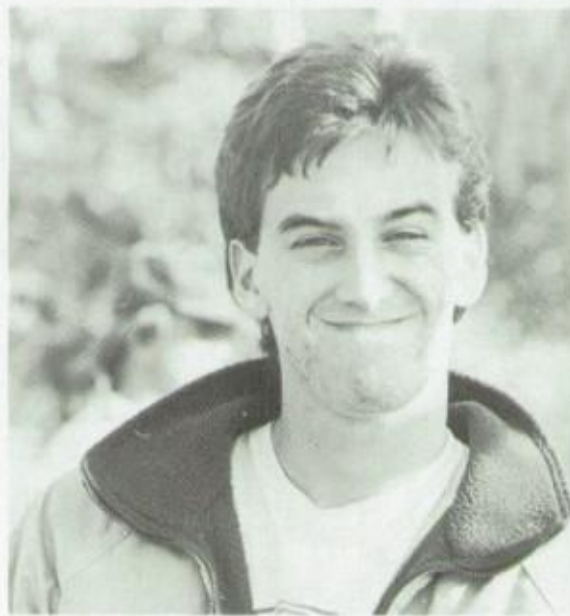

It is with a real sense of loss that the NYA community says farewell at the end of this year to our friend Sam Robinson. Mr. Robinson came to North Yarmouth Academy six years ago when the members of the Class of '87 entered the seventh grade. Now, along with the Class of '87, he leaves us to go on to new adventures elsewhere. We're glad we had these years with him. We will miss you, Mr. Robinson!

Dedication

In the course of day-to-day activities we sometimes fail to recognize members of the staff at NYA for their devotion to the school. This year the Class of 1987 has chosen to recognize a staff member who has contributed many hours of hard work for our benefit. Keeping track of our grades and our college applications and putting up with every possible (and impossible) lateness excuse, she always has a smile. Whether it be at athletic events or at other school functions, she arrives to show her support.

With sincere appreciation we dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Alanna Olivadoti.

SENIORS

"No, don't shoot!"

Christelle? Sebastien?

Summer job — Pillsbury doughboy.

"Tradition!"

"Deedle diddle digga digga dum."

Nothing beats a great pair of legs.

Say cheese.

Aren't they cute!

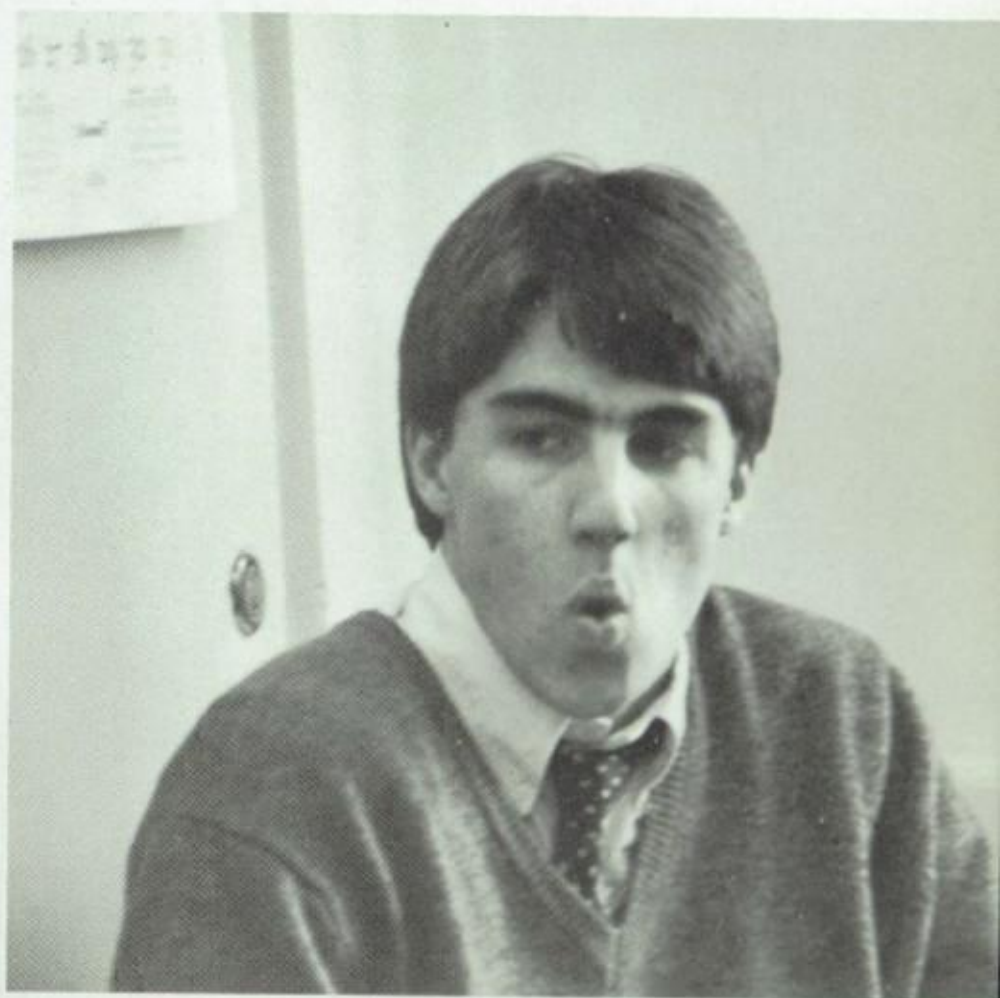

Studying hard?

"What? The Bruins want me?!"

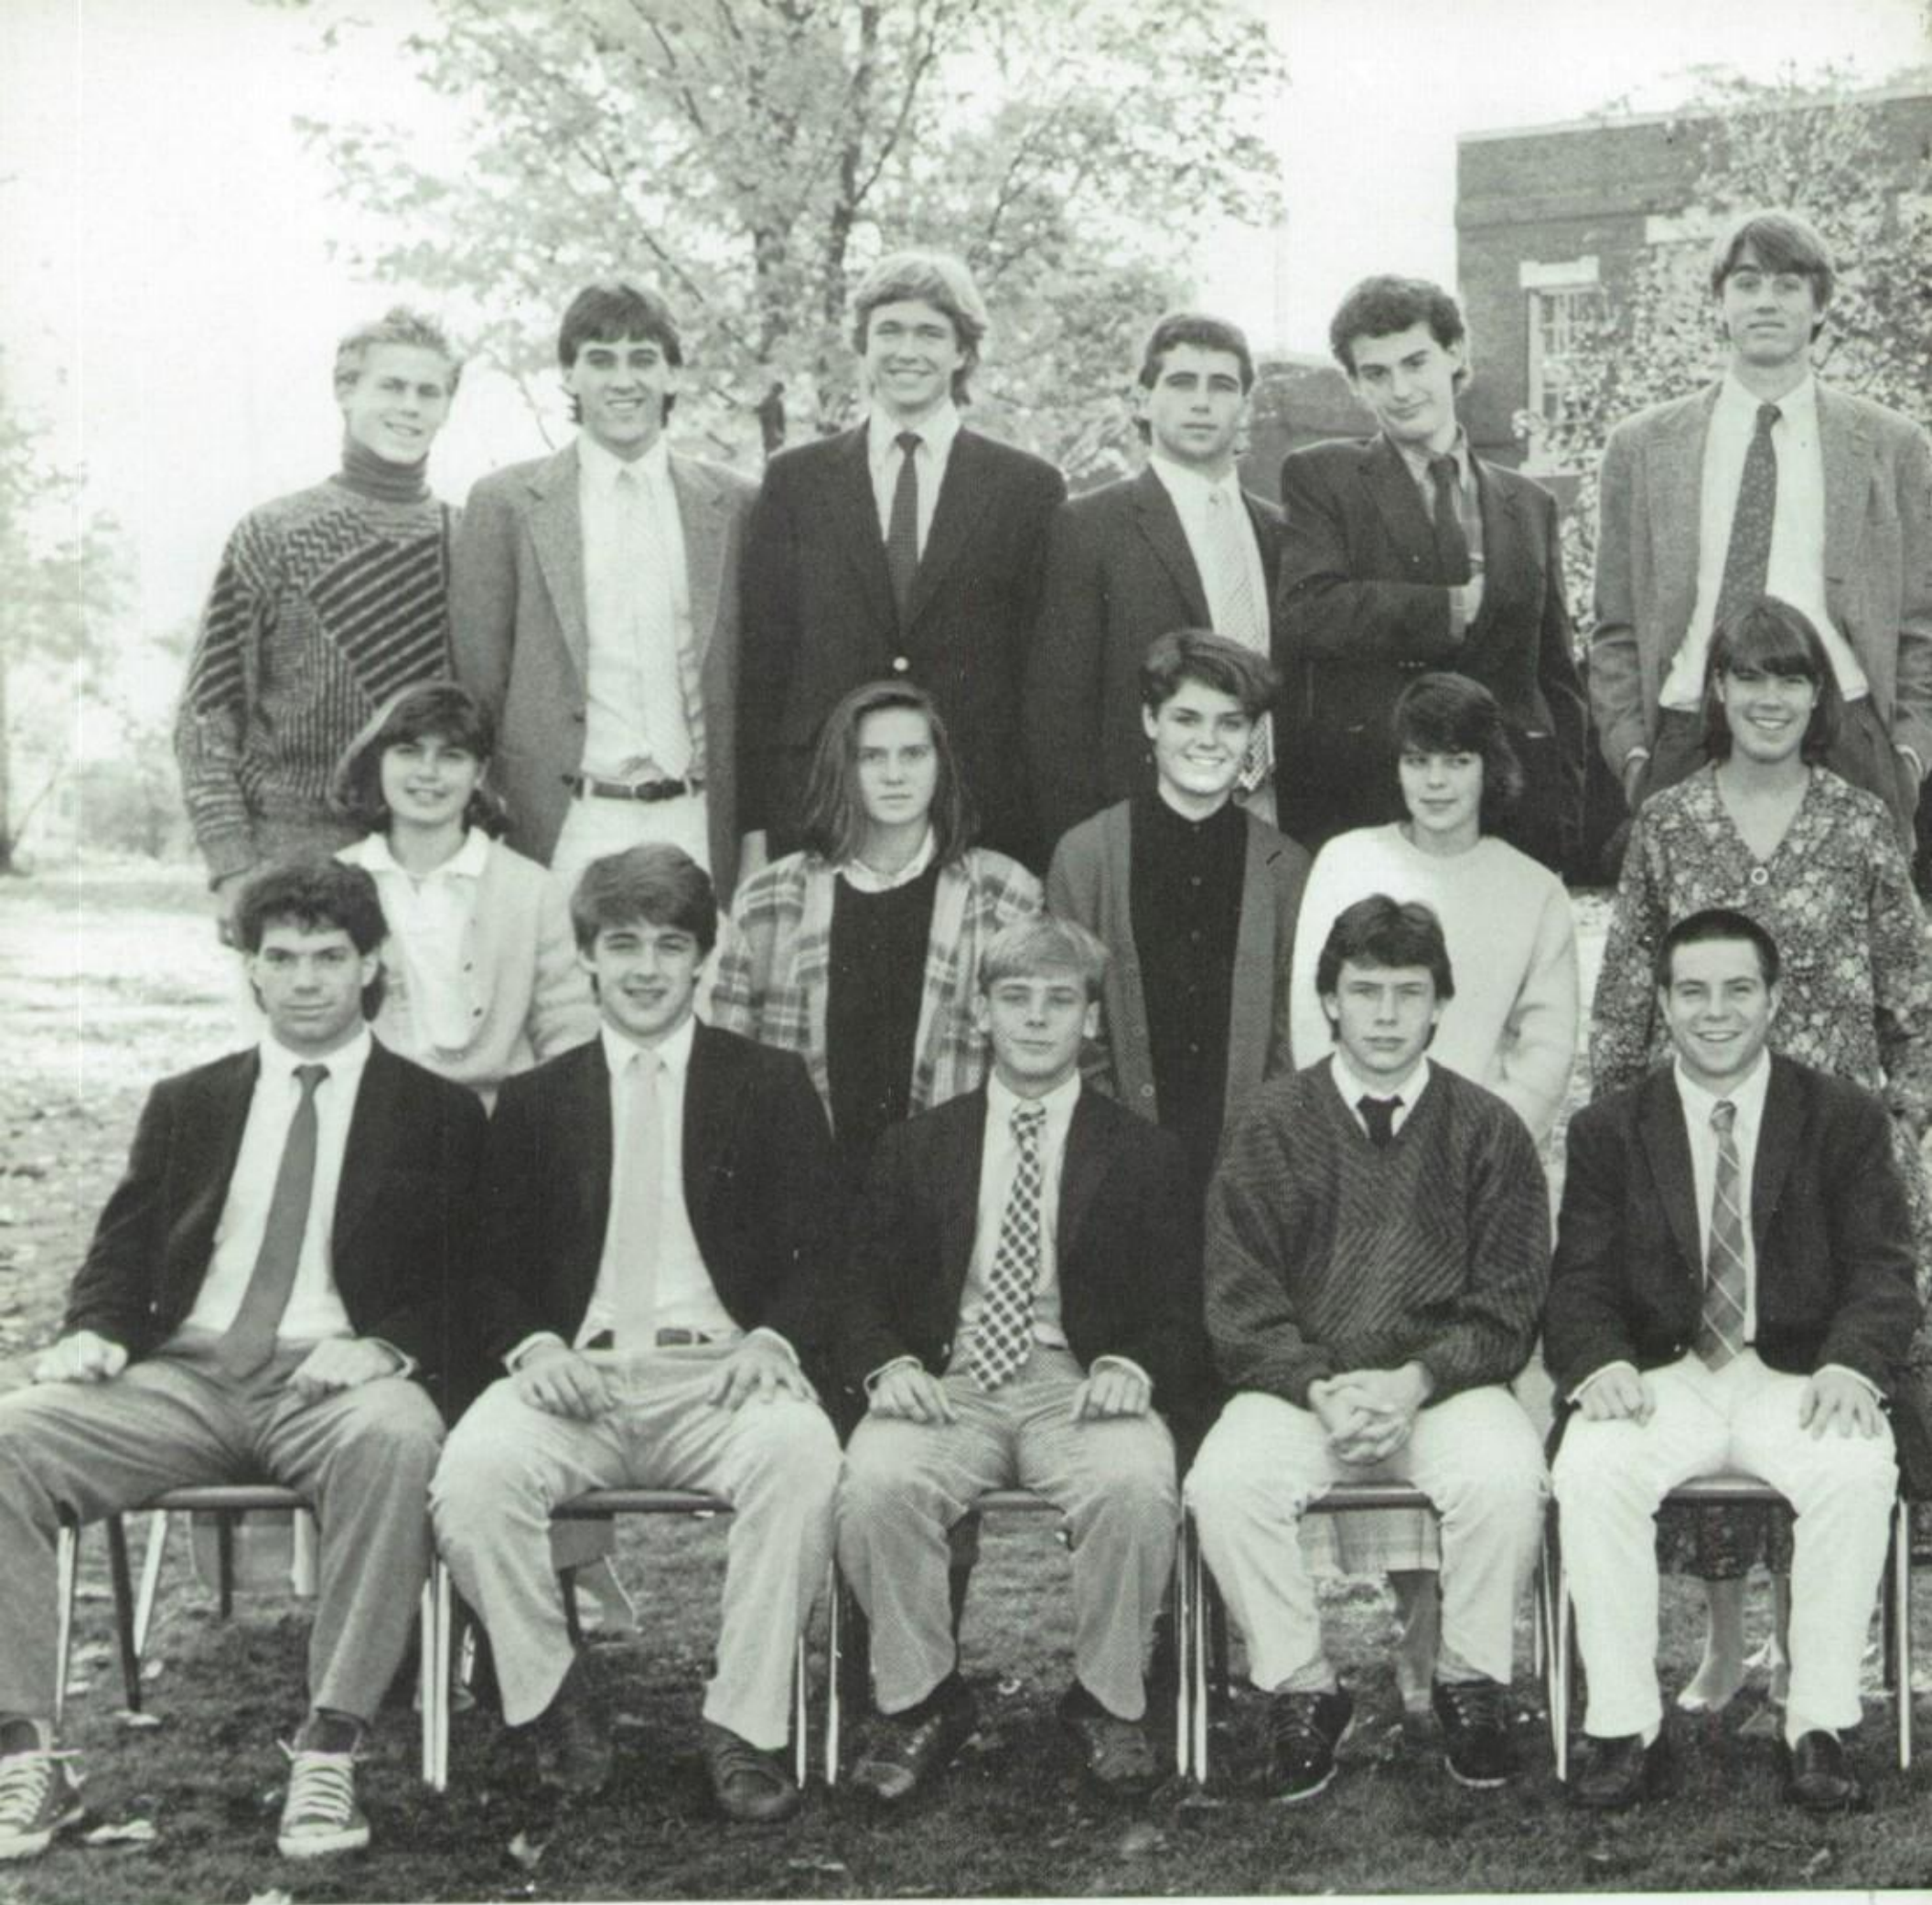

Concentrate on those nails, Liz!

Intense concentration

Sometimes I think I know too much
'Bout what goes on in the real world and such;
Half of me is certain, the other isn't sure,
One half has the symptom, the other has the cure.
By the time there's nothin' left to choose,
One half has the answer, the other looks for clues.

My greatest memories could only be . . . having a best friend like Stace, a sister like Lorie, and having known special friends like Steph, Jennifer, Liz, Jen, PR, Joe, Cara, Katrina, Chrissy, the Hamiltons, the Siegles, the Drews, Mrs. Kessler, and especially Mrs. J.

. . . and of course having parents
like mine.

It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after your own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.

Pet Peeves: Mr. Good's office-the stage-Reagan-Reagan again -Zeib, Val, and Graham's political views-and leaving all of this, well all except Mr. Good's office

Special Thanks: to MOM + DAD for all their love, help, and understanding . . . to Letty (Lettavich) for everything — I wouldn't know where to start, but I wouldn't have made it without you . . . to Mr. Flaherty for all his help — and the good times . . . and a very special thanks to the wrenches (Never forget!) . . . and to Jules for all of her love, which kept me going when I might have quit. Thank you all.

Messages:

Pete — That house will go down in history, my friend, and someday so shall you. Please keep the wrench spirit alive. After all, Morrison is. Keep in touch — and enjoy those glasses!

Norman — I know I'll be seeing you at the Indy 500, still doing 150 in your Volvo. Anyway, Norm — you were the consistent in a bin of loonies — never change. Well, ok, maybe your underwear, but that's it!

Bruce-e-e-e — Well, my man — what can I say? I'm gonna hope to be with you in Boston. But, just in case, I thought I'd tell you to keep in touch, and I mean that. You're a good friend, man, and I thank you for being there and for being a wrench. Stacy's a lucky girl. I'm with you always, my "brudda".

Gram — Well, my radical friend, I must say Reaganomics suck. However, if anyone were to persuade me to say otherwise, it would be you. Colonial Valley will never be the same. Never forget Rossi's. I know I'll be reading about you years to come, involved in some corrupt Wall Street deal. Of course there will be a picture of you in the paper, and you'll be smiling that smile that always makes me laugh. Remember when Val cut his hand — brothers forever.

Zeib — You're crazy. Well, you fell in love with my woman, but I was never really mad. A little ticked, yes, but not actually mad. You're quite the dude Zeibart and I know you'll carry the wrench tradition with you no matter where you do. I'll never forget that look on your face when you get in a wild mood. You've been a good friend, my man, a little radical like Graham, but I wouldn't have had it any other way.

Val — Ah yes — Tiny, known to some as Lenny. I think you learned a lesson from the Bracketts! We had some great talks, Val. Remember that night when we watched Letterman. Scope and Polo, the official rug cleaner. No matter what, stay in touch. I can't wait to see you in 20 years. I'll never forget our crazy stunts. Like the time we went to the Fire Barn. Almost got away with it at Pleasant Mountain. Your Dad, what a riot. Springsteen, Doors, and, of course, Costello. Hope we keep in tune, but see you in 20 no matter what.

Jules — Well, maybe that was the last Clam Festival, but it looks like we caught it just in time. I guess I should introduce you to some of my friends in college (or wherever I end up), but I am embarrassed of you, so . . . You're quite special, kiddo, so don't think for a moment that we'll ever be through. I love you, and the answer to the question you asked me at Cole-Haan (AFTER you called me radar) is yes.

To me for years to come — Well, you're probably middle-aged with a fat stomach and going bald. You're probably reading this and thinking "what a bunch of crap", hopefully not. You may be thinking, "what a bunch of crazy kids we were — God I'm glad to be out of High School." Well just remember, no matter how corny this all may seem, this was your life and these your friends, some of the best you'll ever have. Always remember how much they influenced you, the great times you had, and, most of all, if you don't hear from them by now, well look 'em up for Christ's sake.

I still believe in God. I've pushed all thoughts of him aside, but he is still on my case.

I'm sure I'm going to forget some of the great memories I have of my NYA career, but if I get them down here they can remind me later. By the way Norman, I'm sorry you weren't in the picture, so you get this honorable mention in the text. I was going to draw a picture of you, but thought better of it. You may notice that none of the wrench spouses are in the picture, no offense, but the omission was necessary. There are some memories I probably shouldn't talk about in the yearbook: Model U.N., The Lost Weekend, SADD dance, London, I still wonder how they found out. Waterskiing at midnight; "Hit it! . . . I can't see him!" Sunday River ski trips, were we nuts? Remember O.O.B., take the car, thanks. Yarmouth parties, wandering around the town in the wee hours. And of course, Petes house, who could forget! Too much fun, by the way, where's Kristen (and Joe)? But we must all thank E.G. for some memories we'd rather forget. Remember the three person bed, canteens. Thanks: Zieb, Val, Bruce, Kullmandu, Pete, Norm, Keeb (poor fella, D'd by the Lord of discipline), and Jules no less. Special thanks to Pell. Interrogation by Mr. G . . . Thank you Mrs J for bringing Jesus into my life, only kidding, you know how I feel about that. But really, thanks for everything. Lou, get some stick-ups for that room, but thanks too. Colonial Valley Motel, my dad hasn't let us back there since. Anyway, thanks to the faculty for all the adventures they gave us, they made it fun! Who was it that called me the AntiChrist? astute, ha,ha

"Take more Chances"

If I had my life to do over, I'd dare to make more mistakes, I'd relax, I would timber up. I would take more chances... You see, I'm one of those people who lives sensibly and sanely hour after hour, day after day. Oh,
 I've had my moments, and if I had
 it to do over again, I'd have more of them. In fact, I'd have nothing else
 just moments, one after another,
 instead of living so many years ahead of each day. I've been one of those people who never goes anywhere w/out a thermos, a hot water bottle, a raincoat, and a parachute.
 If I had it to do over again - I'd travel lighter, I'd start barefoot earlier in the spring and stay that way longer
 in the fall. I'd go to more dances, I'd ride more merry-go-rounds, I'd pick more daisies.

Many things in this somewhat 'EXPERIENCED' life I have tried — those I liked, I tried AGAIN!! I've taken refuge in the music and poetry of DYLAN , a prophet and minstrel. "Pete, that's gross!"

Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum?

"Together at last!"

Wake up!

"Damn it!"

"Best buddies."

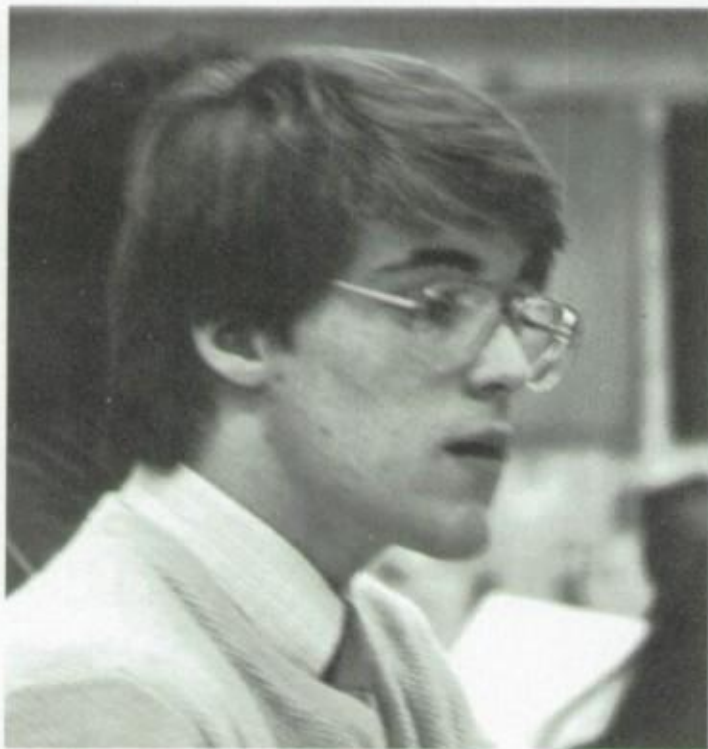

Head ball?

Colgate smile

Best friends

"Ah, Mr. Hudson?"

"I don't want my picture taken!"

Don't even think about it.

Thinking about graduation

Smile for the camera.

Looking out for #1

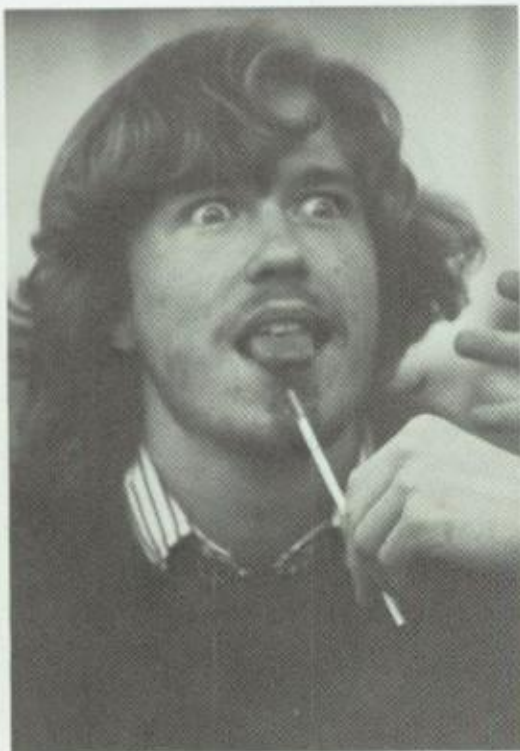

2:30 stubble Alex?

The GQ look

"This picture will NOT fit."

No, Val, your mouth!

"Chris, you did what?"

Handball much, Scott?

Enjoying yourself, Val?

"So, Carmela, you ah said ah you would ah help me with my ah Spanish."

Yes, Ben, that's a pencil.

Band-Aid brand, Dave?

That deceiving look of innocence

What happened to Billy?

"How much time is left?"

"Are you confused? I'm confused!"

Caught ya!

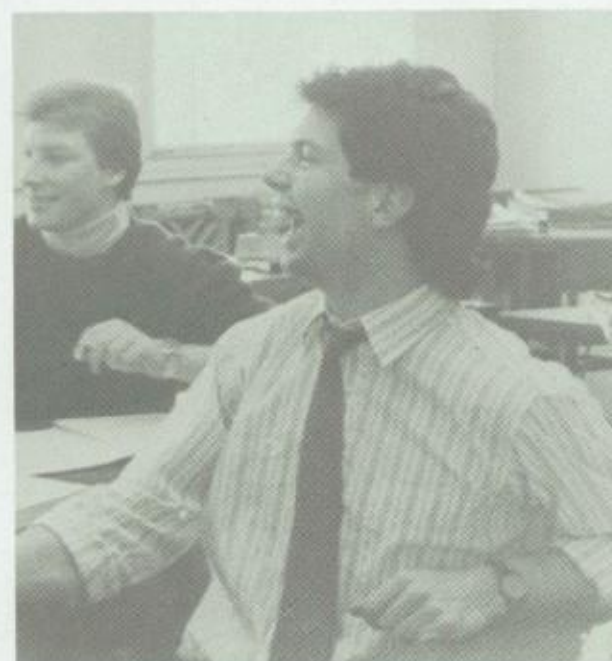

Nancy, you must have MEH next!

"Oh, do I have to, Mr. Hunt?"

Wax on! Wax off!

Say ahhh . . .

"Buddies"

Confidence, confidence, dry and secure

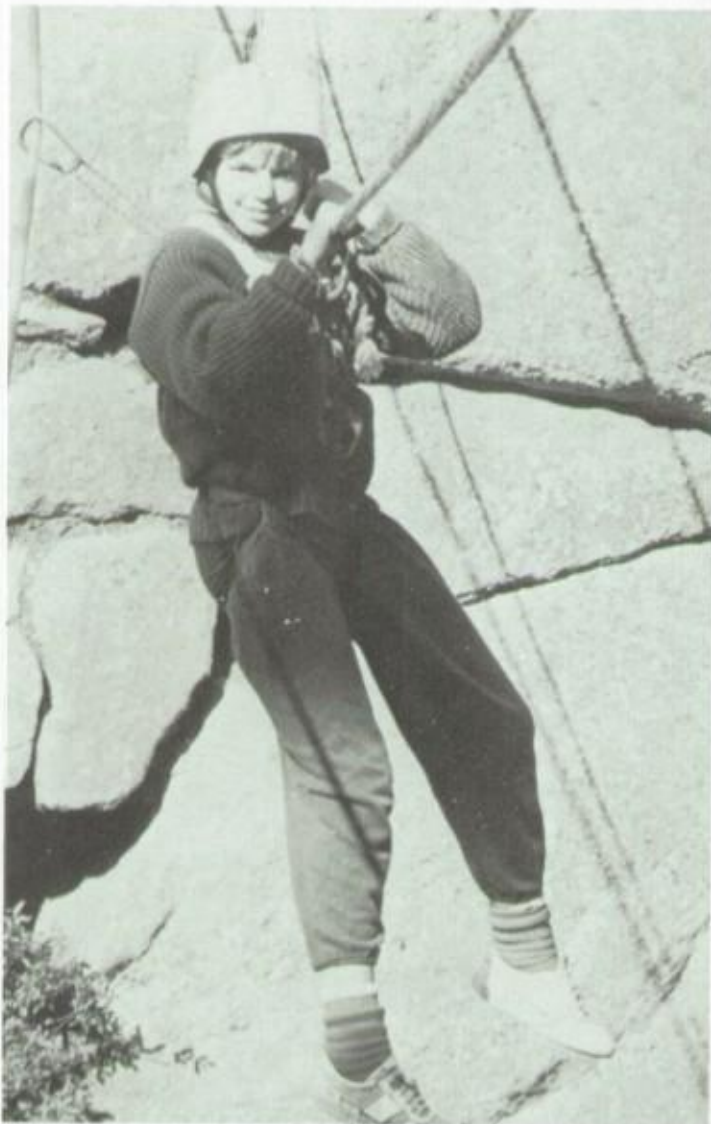

"Yeah, right."

Guys, where are your helmets?!

Comfortable hallway, Steph?

Panthers finish regular season at 17-0

WATERVILLE — North Yarmouth's Matt Dineen scored the winning goal in overtime to give the Panthers a 4-3 victory over Waterville last night.

The last regular season game win gives North Yarmouth an undefeated record of 17-0.

Eric Fenton scored for the Panthers in both the first and second periods. Billy Allen added one in the second period.

Freshman goalie Matt Roper made the save in the final seconds of the third period that put the game into overtime.
